Community Health Workers

Since 2008, HRHN has been at the forefront integrating Community Health Workers (CHWs) with chronic disease management services. CHWs complement services delivered through health care providers by providing more comprehensive and supportive care within a community based setting while providing status updates back to the health care providers. Studies have shown that CHWs can help patients avoid costly hospitalization and emergency department visits, in addition to helping providers and hospitals by decreasing unnecessary visits and uncompensated care. Our CHWs can provide both long and short term case management in cooperation with the referring health care provider.
